

COMBAT ART

Personal Reflections from Afghanistan

You are cordially invited to a private reception of the 40 Commando Royal Marines' Combat Art exhibition

Monday 11 November 2013, 4.30pm
The Market House (West Wing), Fore Street, Taunton, Somerset TA1 1JD

This timely, important and groundbreaking art exhibition documents 40 Commando, Royal Marines' last tour of Afghanistan using an extra piece of military kit - the Combat Art Kit. The bespoke camouflaged kit was distributed to 500 Marines from all ranks. The resulting exhibition showcases the unseen creativity of Marines whilst on active service, a document of events as they happened. The selected drawings and paintings are complimented by larger works, including objects, photography and film made in the field.

Illustrated catalogue available

The exhibition continues 9 - 23 Nov, Wed to Sat, 11am - 5pm
