Key Speaker: Mark Ormrod

A former Royal Marines Commando who was the first British triple amputee during the Afghanistan conflict on X'mas Eve 2007. An Author as well as a Motivation Speaker, he aspires to share his experiences as an amputee and motivates others to view life from a different/positive perspective.

"Well you can choose to give up, hide, become angry, bitter and depressed or ... .. you can turn a negative into a positive and take your tragedy & experience and you can use it to motivate and inspire others".

Testimonial

"I had the great pleasure of hearing Mark speak.....He came and was truly inspirational – none of us will ever forget the huge effect he had on us or the fantastic 'buzz' he left behind. It is a privilege to hear him speak and to learn from his awful experience, personal courage and humility."

Vice - Admiral Sir Tim McClement KCB OBE
